TURKEY

Turkey is one of the leading tourism destinations in the world, with stunning scenery and a rich historical legacy. A mesmerizing mix of the exotic and the familiar, Turkey is much more than its clichéd image of a “bridge between East and West”. Invaded and settled from every direction since the start of recorded history, it combines influences from the Middle East, the Mediterranean, the Balkans and Central Asia. Mosques coexist with churches, Roman theatres and temples crumble near ancient Hittite cities, and dervish ceremonies and gipsy festivals are part of the social landscape.

Ankara

Turkey's capital and the second-largest city after Istanbul. Located in the centre of Anatolia on the eastern edge of the great, high Anatolian Plateau, in the province of the same name, Ankara is a lovely tourist destination. Besides its cultural and architectural heritage, the city has a major European appearance than most of the other cities in Turkey, with wide-open roads, large hotels, restaurants and museums.

Istanbul

The city of Istanbul spreads in two continents- Asia and Europe. Bringing together elements from Byzantine, Greek, Roman, Ottoman and Turkish civilizations, Istanbul has evolved over centuries into a city of great cultural significance. Those who love to explore the remnants of its grandiose history, the oldest part of the city - that is Sultanahmet district is where you'll find the traces of old Byzantine Constantinople. It is in the old city of Istanbul, that you will find the Topkapı Palace, Blue Mosque, Sofia Hagia and so much more....

Gallipoli

Visiting Gallipoli means taking a journey back in time, as it is the place where the site of the ANZAC landings of World War I was located. Get to see the battlefields of the Allied Forces, and the war memorials that commemorate the fallen soldiers, share the stories of camaraderie and heroism that unfolded among the tragedies of what has become a defining moment in Australian and New Zealand history.

Pamukkale

The main attraction in Pamukkale is the whiteness of the cliffs that have waterfalls and basins full of water. From afar, they appear like they are made of cotton, snow, or clouds. But upon closer inspection, the Pamukkale hill looks like a frozen waterfall. Pamukkale's gleaming white terraces of calcium carbonate minerals are made of travertines or sedimentary rocks left by the flowing water from the hot springs.

Kusadası

This beautiful town located in the superb gulf of the Aegean Region has a rich and vibrant atmosphere of mixed European and Asian influences and a perfect blend of the ancient and the modern. Kusadası which literally means “bird island” boasts many of its sun-kissed sandy beaches, clear blue waters, authentic seafood and kebab restaurants, active nightlife, and other forms of recreation and entertainment.

Cappadocia

Cappadocian is a place where nature and history come together with the most beautiful scenery in the world. While geographic events formed peribacaları (fairy chimneys) during the historical period, humans used the signs of thousand-years-old civilizations by carving houses and churches within these earth pillars and decorating them with friezes. Take an opportunity to stay in one of the “Cave Hotels”.

GREECE

Greece - a country of unique beauty, with a uniquely affluent historical past. One can trace the "fingerprints" of Greek history from the Paleolithic Era to the Roman Period in the hundreds of archaeological sites, as well as in the archaeological museums and collections that are scattered throughout the country. Its incredible historic sites span four millennia, encompassing both the legendary and the obscure. Many civilizations left their mark, and almost every town or village has a link to the past, whether it's a delicately crumbling temple to Aphrodite, a forbidding Venetian fort or a dusty Byzantine monastery decorated with exquisite frescoes. Groups of Greek islands in the Mediterranean - each one offers a mesmerising experience....from spectacular sunny beaches to traditional taverns, casual party atmosphere, great cuisine, wonderful shopping and so much more.

Athens

Athens is Greece's capital and largest city, and home to the world-famous monument 'Acropolis of Athens'. A city soaked in heritage and culture, Athens is known as the birthplace of civilization and democracy. With its dramatic views and astonishing buildings and monuments, Athens is a must-see for travellers from all corners of the world.

Crete

Crete is Greece's largest Islands, very mountainous, dotted with numerous coves, bays, peninsulas, gorges, rivers, lakes and soft sandy beaches along the beautifully blue Mediterranean Sea. Rich in culture, Crete has plenty of archaeological and historical sites while also offering a sun-filled beach holiday.

Mykonos

Regarded as a cosmopolitan destination in Greece, Mykonos is very popular and can be crowded during the months of July and August. With plenty of entertainment options be prepared for loud dance clubs, with cafes and bars that cater to the tourist as opposed to more traditional fare. In Greek mythology, Mykonos is believed to be the location of the battle between Zeus and Titans.

Rhodes

Rhodes is famous for the Colossus of Rhodes - a 30-meter statue that once stood over the city before being destroyed in an earthquake. The island is dotted with small villages and beach resorts while still offering archaeological sites and culture. The medieval Old Town of the City of Rhodes, a world heritage site, adds to the attraction of this beautiful island.

Paros

One of the more popular islands in the Cyclades group, Paros was once famed for its marble. The quarries have mostly been closed and the island is now a hot tourist destination, home to Aqua Park and many watersports.

Heraklion (in Crete)

Heraklion is a modern and lively city, steeped in history with numerous archaeological monuments bearing witness to the economic, spiritual and cultural developments of the past ages. The first European civilisation, the Minoan civilisation, flourished on this land 5000 years ago.

Chania (in Crete)

Chania is in the north-west and has a great history and cultural heritage, partly because it faced many conquerors through time, thus being open to the influences of different civilizations. Chania has many monuments of Byzantine period, Venetian period, Ottoman period and modern history.

Santorini

This beautiful island is what remains after an enormous volcanic eruption over 3,600 years ago. The eruption created a giant lagoon which can be viewed by boat and the dramatic landscape gives way to wonderful views and photo opportunities. White-washed buildings perched over the Aegean Sea and black sand beaches make this island one of the most spectacular destinations in Greece. Scuba diving and winery visits are among the many activities available in Santorini.

Kalambaka

Kalambaka, the gateway to Meteora, is almost entirely modern, having been burned to the ground by the Nazis in WWII. For centuries, the strange and mystical landscape has been home to monks looking for peace away from the wars that were plaguing the rest of the country.

Delphi

Delphi is the big enchilada of Greek sites - a long and glorious history, spectacular ancient remains, a superb museum, and a heartbreakingly beautiful location on the slopes of Mount Parnassus. Delphi is magical in the spring when there are both snow and wildflowers on Parnassus. Modern Delphi is a cluster of houses, shops and hotels dug into the steep slope beneath the formidable Phaidriades Cliff.

THE BALKANS & EASTERN EUROPE

The Balkans are the last relatively unexplored corners of Europe. With a wealth of history, culture and culinary treasures and great nightlife, it won't be long before the region becomes the next travel hot pot.

THE BALKANS - DESTINATIONS

Croatia

Croatia is a country bursting with diversity that offers the perfect setting, whether you are planning a holiday, or looking for an ideal incentive, business meeting or group destination. The hardest part will be choosing from Croatia's amazing 5,835km long coastline or venturing inland, where Roman style is replaced by Baroque and Classicism.

Zagreb

The Croatian capital Zagreb is young and playful at heart, despite the almost thousand-year-old history of its old town. Zagreb ranks among the oldest cities in Europe. Its old centre consists of the medieval Gradec - today the home of the Croatian Government and Parliament - and Kaptol, the seat of the Archbishop. Following the administrative unification of the two entities and the surrounding villages in the 19th century, the city experienced a surge in the construction of prestigious buildings, squares and fountains, as well as the establishment of beautiful park-woods and parks.

Dubrovnik

Dubrovnik region is well-known for its fascinating landscapes, abundant Mediterranean vegetation, mild climate and interesting smaller settlements. It's known for its distinctive Old Town, encircled with massive stone walls completed in the 16th century. Its well-preserved buildings range from baroque St. Blaise Church to renaissance Sponza Palace and Gothic Rector's Palace, now a history museum. Paved with limestone, Stradun (or Placa) is lined with shops and restaurants.

Belgrade

Belgrade's rich history features an abundance of attractions most notably in the old Belgrade Fortress. As one of Europe's oldest cities, it is an incredibly rich mosaic of different cultures, influences and styles with a mysterious and exotic atmosphere. European but with oriental influences, interesting sights, splendid architecture, a fast-paced nightlife, great and affordable shopping, as well as a thriving cultural scene.

Bosnia-Herzegovina

A land where turquoise rivers run swiftly and sheep huddle on steep hillsides, Bosnia-Herzegovina is one of Europe's most visually stunning corners. With muezzins calling the faithful to prayer under a backdrop of church bells, it also provides a delightful fusion of East and West in the heart of the Balkans. The country is now marketing itself as the "heart-shaped land", this remains a country cleaved into two distinct entities, the result of a bloody war in the mid-1990s. Bosnia-Herzegovina was not too long ago making headlines for all the wrong reasons, it's now busily, and deservedly, re-etching itself on the world travel map as a bona fide tourist magnet of some repute.

Budapest

The capital of Hungary, which is also the largest and most populated city. A city in a stunning natural setting with a rich architectural and historical heritage, offering an unmatched combination of culture, fine cuisine and thermal baths. Budapest is also a peaceful meeting point of religions and cultures, a coexistence of the spiritual heritage of East and West. Budapest is a melting pot of wide-ranging subcultures making it worth a visit, as it's a familiar and safe metropolis with a human face that also offers a wealth of novelties, experiences and surprises.

Austria

This small country experienced more than a quarter century of social and economic turbulence and a Nazi dictatorship. After withdrawal of the Allied troops in 1955 that had occupied the country since the end of World War II, enabled Austria to develop into a stable and socially progressive nation with a flourishing cultural life reminiscent of its earlier days of international musical glory. Its social and economic institutions too have been characterized by new forms and a spirit of cooperation, and, although political and social problems remain, they have not erupted with the intensity evidenced in other countries of the Continent.

Czech Republic

Nestled in the centre of Europe, the Czech Republic is a country steeped in history. It's been populated for thousands of years and is a land dotted with castles, medieval towns, beautiful mountains, ancient ruins, and world-class wineries. The country sees more and more tourists each year but they mostly stick to Prague. Once you escape that beautiful (but crowded) city you'll find an inexpensive country with some of the most beautiful and rugged landscape.

Hungary

Hungary has a history that stretches far back in time the country has a rich heritage, distinct culture and natural wonders. Hungary, is most distinguished by its architectural treasures from Roman ruins to baroque churches, from medieval town houses to neoclassical buildings and art nouveau bathhouses, its beautiful cities have a charm of their own. Be it, its capital Budapest, Szeged or Kecskemét, Debrecen or Sopron, every place holds some gems of architectural heritage.

Prague

Prague, the capital city of the Czech Republic, is bisected by the Vltava River. Nicknamed "the City of a Hundred Spires," it's known for its Old Town Square, the heart of its historic core, with colourful baroque buildings, Gothic churches and the medieval Astronomical Clock, which gives an animated hourly show. Completed in 1402, pedestrian Charles Bridge is lined with statues of Catholic saints.

Vienna

Vienna's history dates back to the first post-Christian century when the Romans established the military camp Vindobona. Today's cityscape is characterised by the abundance of baroque buildings created mostly under the rule of Empress Maria Theresia and Emperor Franz Joseph, who was largely responsible for the monumental architecture. Schloss Schönbrunn, the former imperial summer residence, is one of the most popular sights. The palace with the beautifully tended formal gardens, the Gloriette monument, the Palm House, and the zoo attract hordes of visitors each year. The huge Hofburg (Imperial Palace) was the base of the Habsburgs for over six centuries and is an impressive repository of culture and heritage.

Slovakia

Slovakia is a special country. Even in such a small area, you'll find everything from natural treasures and historical monuments to rich folk culture and modern entertainment in the busy city streets. Enjoy the beauty and unique atmosphere that Slovakia has to offer. Explore its splendid natural scenery, rich history, culture, and traditions.

Bratislava

The Capital of the Slovak republic, on river Danube, the second greatest river in Europe, as its pride and symbol. The symbol of rich history and a typical dominant of the city is the Castle of Bratislava. One can contemplate not only the magnificent view of the city but also the neighbouring Austria and Hungary, that Bratislava borders on, from its courtyard or the windows of the Castle. Right below the Castle, there is the Gothic St Martin Minster, the religious symbol of Bratislava.

ITALY

Italy is a unique country, rich in culture and history, with magnificent and diverse landscapes and terrains. From its cosmopolitan cities, Tuscan countryside, stunning beaches and mountains to villages, towns and cities steeped in historic significance and architectural wonder, it is not surprising Italy is regarded as one of the world's most popular holiday destination. Whether you are after a holiday in the sun, a romantic getaway or a city sightseeing adventure, Italy has something for everyone.

Rome

Steeped in historical significance, Rome offers a plethora of archaeological sites and artistic treasures. From the Colosseum and Ancient City to the modern Vatican Museum, along with the many churches, fountains, palaces and piazzas, Rome is a bustling metropolis rich in historical and cultural importance. Contemporary art galleries, shopping and entertainment complete Rome as an iconic yet modern city to visit with something on offer for everyone.

Venice

Known as the 'City of Canals' Venice is made up of 118 islands divided by canals and linked together by bridges. As one of Europe's most popular attractions, it is estimated that on average 50,000 people visit on a daily basis. With local attractions including St. Marks Basilica, the Grand Canal and Piazza San Marco, Venice offers plenty of history, architecture and art to keep you busy. Enjoy a relaxing gondola boat trip along the canals or sip a coffee and watch the world go by.

Florence

Florence, the capital of the Tuscan region, has an abundant collection of some of the world's most famous art and sculptures. With the Uffizi and Accademia Galleries housing large collections of art from the Renaissance period and the Statue of David, alongside its rich cultural and historical background, Florence is one of the most visited cities in Europe. Learn about the reign of the Medici family, visit the sights, take a cooking class or stroll around this accessible city to take in all Florence has to offer.

Milan

Located in the more affluent north of Italy, Milan is an economic hub renowned for its love of fashion, design and architecture. Art galleries and museums are plentiful and La Scala is considered one of the world's most prestigious opera houses in the world

Naples

Naples was once the centre of Greek commerce. It explains the nearby remains of the port of Paestum, which the Greeks established in the 6th century B.C. as part of a major trade route. Naples has an ancient and complex history in which Greek, Roman, Angevin, Aragonese, Spanish, Bourbon and Napoleonic dynasties played great roles and hence glimpses of this history live on the Archaeological Museum located in Naples. It is a lively and vibrant city, full of wonderful historical and artistic treasures and narrow, winding streets with small shops.

Pompeii

Pompeii was one of the largest and most shining cities built during the Roman era. Due to its large production and export of oil and wines, it became a very rich city and tourist destination for the Roman patricians. In 79 AD, Vesuvius, which no one knew was a volcano yet because it looked like a common mountain, destroyed the town with a violent eruption. It was then buried under meters of ash and pumice. The preserved site features excavated ruins of streets and houses that visitors can freely explore.

Sorrento/ Amalfi Coast

Perched on the cliffs of the Sorrentine Peninsula, overlooking the Bay of Naples, Mt Vesuvius and the Isle of Capri, Sorrento is a popular tourist destination. Easily reached from Naples and Pompeii, Sorrento attracts many of the rich and famous, many of whom own luxury holiday homes here. The small town offers a relaxed atmosphere with options to explore the surrounding areas by boat or tour.

The Amalfi Drive links Sorrento to Amalfi via a narrow road carved into the high cliffs. Visit Positano, a quaint fishing town built in an enclave on the hill with a number of boutique shops and galleries. Amalfi is another popular tourist destination. In the centre of the town Saint Andrew's Cathedral overlooks Piazza Duomo and many cafes and restaurants are perfectly positioned to enjoy the wonderful views on offer.

PORTUGAL

Lisbon

Lisbon is Portugal's hilly, coastal capital city. The city's compact, the cobblestoned heart is easily explored on foot or via its old-fashioned trams and funiculars. The Moorish Alfama district has narrow, winding streets and taverns with fado singers. Chiado and its cafes, shopping and seafood restaurants adjoin Bairro Alto, known for nightlife. The Calouste Gulbenkian Museum complex, set amid serene gardens, displays noted art collections. On the waterfront are the ornate 16th-century Jerónimos Monastery and Belém Tower, and, to the east, the ultramodern Parque das Nações district and its massive Oceanário aquarium.

Porto

Porto is a coastal city known for its stately bridges and port wine production. In the medieval Ribeira (riverside) district, narrow cobbled streets wind past merchants' houses and cafes. São Francisco Church is known for its lavish baroque interior with ornate gilded carvings. The palatial 19th-century Palácio de Bolsa, formerly a stock market, was built to impress potential European investors.

Sintra

Sintra is a resort town in the foothills of Sintra Mountains, near Lisbon. A longtime royal sanctuary, its forested terrain is studded with pastel-coloured villas and palaces. The Moorish and Manueline-style Sintra National Palace is distinguished by dramatic twin chimneys and elaborate tilework. The hilltop 19th-century Pena National Palace is known for a whimsical design and sweeping views.

Fátima

Fátima is a central Portuguese town that's home to the Sanctuary of Fátima, a Catholic pilgrimage site. The Capelinha das Aparições marks the spot where the Virgin Mary allegedly appeared in 1917. Other sacred sites include the Basílica de Nossa Senhora do Rosário, with its golden angels, and the modern church of Igreja da Santíssima Trindade.

Land of history, with a rich, superbly well-preserved heritage that is nevertheless resolutely modern, the things you can do in this little country will astonish you, as well as how welcoming its inhabitants are, its food and its traditions. From historic cities such as Porto and Coimbra to the rich cultural centre that is Lisbon, Portugal is crammed full of museums, monuments and stunning architecture. Add to that its natural beauty and countryside like nowhere else

RUSSIA & UKRAINE

Russia, the world's largest nation, borders, European and Asian countries as well as the Pacific and Arctic oceans. It is a country of contrasts, from great subtropical beaches to bitterly cold winter regions in the north. Russia is steeped in history everywhere a traveller goes, from vicious battles to great classical music and literature. And almost everywhere visitors can see examples of magnificent art, not only in museums but also in its churches. It's famous for Moscow's Bolshoi and St. Petersburg's Mariinsky ballet companies.

Moscow

Moscow is the political, historical, architectural and business centre of Russia. It displays the country's contrasts at their most extreme. It represents Russia of yesterday and Russia of today. Moscow is known as the world's most expensive city. It is home to the culturally significant Tretyakov Gallery. It is the world's most important museum of Russian art.

Saint Petersburg

The second-largest city in Russia after Moscow and one of the world's most beautiful cities, St. Petersburg has all the ingredients for an unforgettable travel experience: high art, lavish architecture, wild nightlife, an extraordinary history and rich cultural traditions that have inspired and nurtured some of the modern world's greatest literature, music, and visual art. From the mysterious twilight of the White Nights to world-beating opera and ballet productions on magical winter evenings, St. Petersburg charms and entices in every season.

Ukraine

Big, diverse and largely undiscovered, Ukraine is a hidden gem - a nation rich in colourful traditions, warm-hearted people and off-the-map experiences. Here, you can find everything; from bustling cities to historic age-old towns; from sweeping golden beaches to the cast green steppe; from its awe-inspiring golden domes to its quaint cobblestoned streets and secret mountain villages. Despite its complex history, Ukraine has recently entered new age and is coming into its own as one of the hottest new travel destinations in Europe, finding its path in the modern-day world, while celebrating its age-old traditions and customs.

Kiev

"Everything Starts in Kiev" is the Ukrainian capital's official promotional motto and even if your exploration of Ukraine doesn't start here it certainly is a "must-see and experience" destination during your visit. Did you know that in the 11th century Kiev was the largest city in Europe? Kiev, of course, is known internationally as the "City of Golden Domes" for the glistening cupolas of such ancient Ukrainian Orthodox places of worship as St. Sophia's, St. Michael's and the Monastery of the Caves.

Lviv

If Ukraine has a city that can naturally bear the title of "Gateway to the West" it is certainly Lviv - not only due to its physical proximity to neighboring countries of the European Union (it's only about 70 kilometres from the border with Poland) but also because it was part of the Austrian Hapsburg Empire from 1772 to 1918. Lviv also spent several centuries under Polish rule. These Western influences have left an indelible mark on Lviv's architecture, culture and cuisine. The central "old town" part of the city is designated a UNESCO World Heritage Site and nearly every weekend a festival is held here.

Please read the Terms & Conditions before making a booking

These Booking Conditions govern the relationship between the client ("you") and Exotic Holidays ("EH"). By booking arrangements with us, you agree to accept these Booking Conditions.

Validity: This brochure is valid from 01 October 2019 until 30 September 2020. The prices in this brochure are indicative and intended as a guide only.

To book: In order to hold the arrangements on a definite basis, a deposit of $250 per person is required within 14 days. Certain services need a higher deposit in order to confirm. These details will be provided along with confirmation and Invoice. Receipt of deposit by EH would mean that you accept the accuracy of all arrangements booked. In all the cases, deposits, pre-payments and payments made prior to due date are non-refundable. All communication with regard to booking, amendment, cancellation, etc. is to be done with emails - please avoid verbal instructions.

Costs: All costs in the brochure are per person in New Zealand Dollars & Australian Dollars. Prices are subjected to availability of product and/or services. The costs may vary if we have to provide you with an alternate hotel or higher class of domestic flights in the program due to non-availability of originally requested ones. The prices are only indicative based on lowest category of hotels for low season in base room types. Prices can vary due to currency fluctuation without prior notice and until the services are paid in full. Please ask us for valid rates prior to making a reservation. The costs are valid if paid by cheque, bank transfer or by direct credit. We do not accept credit card payments. Compulsory dinners at hotels (like Christmas Eve's Dinner, New Year Eve's Dinner, etc.) are not included in the costs. These are additional to the costs indicated in the brochure and will be added to your Invoice.

Late Booking: All bookings requested within 30 days of operation are subject to 100% cancellation charges. The arrangements shall be requested only after receipt of payment and if required services are not available, the tour cost will be refunded in total. We do not charge any late booking fee.

Price Guarantee: The costs are subjected to change due to currency fluctuation until the arrangements are paid in full. EH guarantees the price for a paid booking. However, the price guarantee does not include any new levy of taxes by government or change in domestic airfares or substantial increase in fuel costs.

Visas & Passport: Ensure that you possess a valid passport and correct Visas for your tour. EH shall not be held responsible or liable for any loss, inconvenience or expense due to problems arising from incorrect and/or invalid passport or Visa.

Insurance: It is highly recommended that you take proper insurance to cover you for the full duration of your travel arrangements, including but not limited to illness, injury, death, loss of baggage and personal items, cancellation and curtailment. EH shall not be held liable for any loss, damage or theft of your personal belongings in hotels, vehicles, boat, train or anywhere else while on tour.

Health: We expect you to be of reasonable health to undertake the tour arrangements, which may include some walking every day. Trekking trips require a higher level of fitness and preparation. Consult your doctor to familiarize yourself with health and/or vaccination requirements for the countries you plan to visit.

Extras: Not included in your tour cost will be international airfare, Visa fee, travel insurance, excess baggage penalty, tips, communication expenses, meals (other than specifically mentioned in your program), laundry, beverages and other items of personal nature.

Payment: EH should receive the balance payment at least 36 days prior to departure. If the payment is not received 36 days prior to departure, EH reserves the right to cancel all arrangements and charge penalties. In case of non-payment of balance as per the due date, deposits paid and part-payments can be forfeited.

Cancellation: If you have to amend or cancel your tour, following penalties will apply:

36 days prior to departure: Loss of deposit
35 days or less: 100% tour cost

Flights, trains and ferry tickets are non-refundable. Cancellation fees for certain products may vary - EH will advise you on those products, if any, at the time of confirmation and Invoice. We regret that cancellation charges cannot be waived. There are no refunds for unused arrangements after our services begin. Our overseas operators or their employees are not authorized to commit any refund for any unutilized service.

Changes: EH reserves the right to cancel, reschedule or amend arrangements and itinerary in case of unforeseen circumstances beyond our control or force majeure. Force majeure includes, but is not limited to war or a threat of war, civil unrest, riot, industrial dispute, terrorist activity, fire or adverse weather conditions, natural or man-made disasters, technical problem with transport, rescheduling or cancellation of flight(s). In such a case, EH shall not be held liable for curtailment or amendment to arrangements, expense and inconvenience or for unutilized flight tickets. Your insurance should cover the cost of arrangements booked by EH, which are directly affected by force majeure. If, for some reason, EH has to change a confirmed Hotel, we shall provide you with a suitable alternate.

All information provided in this brochure is correct to the best of EH's knowledge and EH accepts no liabilities for any unintentional or innocent inaccuracy in the brochure. Your tour arrangements are made by EH on the assumption that you appreciate the possible risks involved while travelling in vehicles, tours and treks in other countries. Due to political, cultural and geographical differences and to a certain extent, tougher conditions, touring in those countries involve a higher level of risks than our normal daily lives. EH would like to suggest consulting relevant sources with regard to travel advisories, health requirements, consulates etc. for further guidance. Please see our website also for Terms & Conditions.
