The ISLAND of HAWAII™

One of the HAWAIIAN ISLANDS

From snow-capped peaks to multi-hued beaches, from lavish resorts to small-town shops, Hawai'i Island, often referred to as Hawai'i, the Big Island, offers an abundant variety of unique sights and experiences. With 425km of coastline, five marine life conservation districts and all but four of the world's climate zones, there's plenty here to explore. There's never any rush on the Island of Hawai'i. This is a place of mellow people, historic towns, five grand volcanoes (Kohala, Hualālai, Maunaloa, Kilauea and Maunakea) and the signature warmth and graciousness of aloha. Take your time. Discover black sand beaches and ancient petroglyphs. Wander through art galleries and coffee plantations. Greet the sunrise and toast the sunset. Each visit to Hawai'i Island is many journeys within one.

Kona & Kohala Coast

The west side of the Island is known for its sparkling resorts, world-class golf courses, white sand beaches and homegrown Kona coffee! These coastal waters offer thrilling big-game sport fishing and jewel-box snorkeling, while the landscape, carved into an ancient lava flow, records the past in its historic sites.

Hilo

With historic small-town flavor and attractive shops, restaurants and museums, Hilo is a flourishing capital city, a cultural hub—and so much more. With its volcanic backdrop, tumbling waterfalls, colourful gardens and towering banyan trees, Hilo is also the gateway to Hawai'i Volcanoes National Park and the 60km long, fantastically scenic Hāmākua Coast.

Ka'ū & Puna

The south and east districts of Hawai'i Island features dramatic black sand beaches, orchid gardens, coffee groves, quaint towns, historic sites and, above it all, the magnificent 500 square mile Hawai'i Volcanoes National Park. Diversity, contrasts and beauty continue to expand as Kilauea creates land inspiring artists, scientists and visitors from around the world.

North Kohala

Revered as the birthplace of King Kamehameha I, Kohala is also paniolo - Hawaiian cowboy - country. Here, history resides comfortably alongside wide-open ranchland, artists and art galleries thrive amidst the boundless natural beauty.

Essential Experiences

Must See & Do

1 Stargaze atop Maunakea

For a truly remarkable experience stargaze atop Maunakea, the tallest sea mountain in the world and home to many international observatories.

2 Walk on a volcano

Enjoy dozens of hiking trails and backcountry hikes in Hawai'i Volcanoes National Park. Explore elevations from sea level to just under 10,000ft.

3 Snorkel with manta rays

Swim with one of the largest fish in the ocean, the manta ray. With a wingspan of up to six metres or more, it's possible to encounter these amazing creatures on an unforgettable night snorkel or dive off the Kona coast or Kohala coasts.

4 Circle the Island

Find out for yourself why the prestigious National Geographic magazine has named the drive around Hawai'i Island among its '50 Ultimate Road Trips in the World'. Remarkably you are able to encounter all but four of the worlds sub-climate zones here including desert plains, rainforest and snow-capped mountains.

5 Look into early Hawaiian culture

Step back into a fascinating ancient time in the sacred Pu'uuhonua O Hōnaunau National Historical Park. Hundreds of years old yet beautifully restored, the park is magical at sunset.

6 Befriend a Hawaiian cowboy

Hawaiian cowboys (paniolo) used to roam the island on horseback, herding cattle across the rolling green pastures. Today, ranches in Kohala provide a variety of opportunities to experience the paniolo lifestyle.

7 Frolick in Kealakekua Bay

Schools of tropical fish swarm Kealakekua Bay on the Kona Coast, an ideal place for snorkelling and swimming with spinner dolphins often seen here.

8 Visit Downtown Hilo

Visit Hilo's quaint shops and cultural sites including the Pacific Tsunami Museum and 'Imiloa Astronomy Center. For fresh produce and made-in-Hawai'i crafts don't miss the Hilo Farmers Market year-round every Wednesday and Saturday.

9 Sample sweet treats

Indulge in malasada (Portuguese doughnuts) and excellent Kona coffee. You'll discover numerous coffee farms in Kona, with many offering free tours and delicious samples.

10 Golf Hawai'i Island

With its dramatic contours, wide-open spaces and fantastic variations in elevation, Hawai'i Island is unmatched. Most courses face the ocean and many are carved from ancient lava flows.

Sightseeing

Grand Circle Island Tour

See first hand the incredible diversity that Hawai'i Island is famous for on this 400km narrated tour. Highlights of the tour include seeing the Captain Cook Monument at Kealakekua Bay before proceeding through the vast volcanic lava flow of South Point and visiting the town of Honoka'a which is renowned for its macadamia nut products. Your adventure ends in the late afternoon, back at your resort.
